

Asian Long Horned Beetle

"This beetle is a serious threat to our own woodlands. It is not here yet, but it is too close for comfort. It attacks most of the hardwood trees and could do a tremendous amount of damage to our forests. At present, the beetle has disappeared for the winter, but next Spring and Summer we must keep a lookout for it. There are posters and informative materials in the Town Office Building if you wish more information."

<http://www.smithsonianmag.com/science-nature/Invasion-of-the-Longhorns.html?c=y&page=1>

TAFT 11.01.09